Quinteto Latino

Friday, March 2, 2018

10:20-11:10am & 11:10am-12:00pm in Huff Multi

Quinteto Latino introduces listeners of all ages to the color and rhythm of Latin American music. They explore folk songs and classical works from all across the globe. These five musicians perform with high energy and enthusiasm as they educate, enrich and entertain. Quinteto Latino takes their audience on a journey, using movement and sounds to talk about the importance of diversity and working together. Join us on a new adventure TODAY!

"Raices de Nuestra Musica/Our Musical Roots" - In this assembly program, Quinteto Latino celebrates cultural awareness and pride by exploring the native songs, music, and languages of Five countries. Quinteto Latino encourages students to participate and help make cultural ties to their own home while exploring language and songs from all over the world and demonstrating how music is important to individuals and groups across the globe.

The Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) is a non-profit center for arts education serving the community since 1968 through: music lessons, music and art classes, camps; in-school arts programs; free concerts and art exhibitions, outreach events and a financial aid program to ensure that the arts are accessible to all.
